

The J. Peterman Company

Owner's Manual Nº. 19

Fall 2003

p. 56

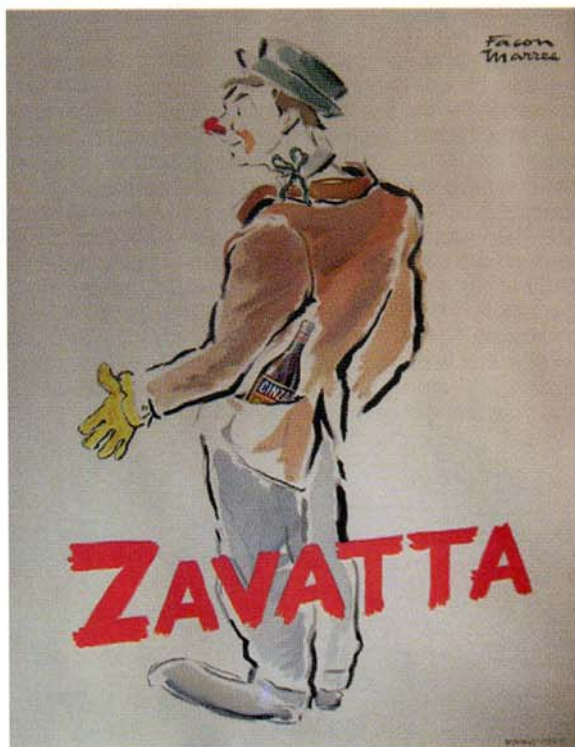

p. 43

p. 37

p. 20

That's Entertainment.

The French Red Skelton. Achille Zavatta (owner and star of the Zavatta Circus), a much-loved comic legend in France. Note gleam of intelligence in face, inspirational bottle of Cinzano in pocket.

Original Cinzano poster by Marrec, ca. 1930, brings a smile to any wall. Collectible lithograph, linen-backed, with Certificate of Authenticity. Dimensions: 47" x 63". (No. C139.) Price: $2,900. (Only 2 available.)

Lovely Rita. Her role in Gilda (1946) confirmed Rita Hayworth's position as Hollywood's "Love Goddess"... especially, I'd say, that one-second shot where she throws her head back while wearing the satin nightgown.

Original study for Gilda poster by Aristide Bacci, same year as the movie; this is decidedly passionate, too. Gouache on board, signed by the artist, and shipped with Certificate of Authenticity. Dimensions: 12" x 19-1/2". (No. C140.) Price: $1,900. (Only 1 available.)